I wish to have the Bank deduct money from my above mention depository bank account(s) to settle debts and/or obligations I have with United Securities Public Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") pursuant to the amount appearing on the invoice and diskette or computer data communication system which the Bank received from the Company and to further transfer such amount to the account of the Company.

Despite such deduction of money from my depository bank account(s) for settlement of the debts and/or obligations to the Company, and it later appears that the monetary amount the Company informed the Bank was inaccurate and, however, the Bank deducted such amount from my depository bank account(s) pursuant to the amount appearing on the invoice and diskette or computer data communication system which the Bank received from the Company, I agree that I shall directly undertake to claim such amount from the Company. I renounce my right of claim or of instituting legal actions in demanding the Bank to compensate the deducted amount from my depository bank account(s) in setting the debts to the Company and I further agree that the Bank may deduct money my depository bank account(s) only if sufficient fund is available in such bank account(s) for the deduction. Also, I accept that I do not wish to have the Bank advise the deduction given that such deduction entry would be known to me from records in my passbook and/or the Bank statement and/or an acknowledgement receipt of the Company.

In the event if there appears changes in respect of the details of account number of the aforesaid bank account(s), I agree that this letter of request for deduction from depository bank account(s) shall remain effective for the bank account(s) affected by such changes.

The above mentioned request for deduction from depository bank account(s) shall become promptly effective from the execution date of this letter and shall remain valid until a written revocation is advised to the Bank and the Company not less than 30 days in advance.
